Chapter 13. Transfer of Territory From Certain Cities

IC 20-4-13-1
Transfer of territory from city to consolidated school corporation; authorization to grant and accept
Sec. 1. Any third class city, the territory of which constitutes a part of the territory of a consolidated school corporation, shall be authorized to grant to such consolidated school corporation, for school purposes any building owned by such city, together with the real estate upon which such building is situated, theretofore leased to and used for school purposes by such consolidated school corporation during a period of at least five (5) consecutive years. Such grant shall be authorized by the common council of such city and may be made without appraisement or compensation or upon such terms as may be agreed upon. The possession and use of any specified portion of such property may be reserved by such city for such period of time, for such use by the city, and upon such terms as may be agreed upon. Each such grant shall be made in the form of a deed or other written instrument which may be recorded, but in all cases may provide that in the event such property is no longer needed for school purposes the same shall revert to such city. Such consolidated school corporation acting by its board of school trustees shall be authorized to accept such grant without either appraisement or compensation therefor or upon such terms as may be agreed to by its board of school trustees.

Supplemental effect of chapter
Sec. 2. This chapter, being necessary and intended to remedy deficiencies in laws existing on June 30, 1955, relating to powers of certain municipal corporations and of certain school corporations, shall not be deemed to repeal the provisions of those laws governing such corporations but to supplement and clarify those laws, and to that end shall be liberally construed.
(Formerly: Acts 1955, c.126, s.2.) As amended by P.L.2-1988, SEC.503.
